The Wright County Medical Society is in session today at Mountain Grove. Dr. R. A. Ryan of Norwood, president, will make an address. Dr. C. W. Burdette of Ava will read a paper on "Eczema," and Dr. B. E. Latimer of Hartsville will read a paper on "Erysipelas." Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at this meeting.
Two days' attendance at the Ozark Trails convention in Oklahoma City Nov. 21, will recharge every good roads man with 'pep.' And it will be the variety that will make him do things. These conventions are real schools. There's no old time oratory. They are composed of business men and farmers interested in improving the conditions of the community in which they live.

Congressman T. L. Rubey
Candidate for Re-Election

To Dog Owners.

The mad dog scare we had on the streets of Mansfield Wednesday, and the request of many citizens, makes it necessary for me to request all dog owners, especially those whose dogs were bitten that day, to keep their dogs tied or muzzled. After consulting the physicians of the city I find it is their opinion that 20 days will be necessary to determine whether other cases will develop or not. After Nov. 22, perhaps, there will be no danger. Should one of the dogs bitten show signs of "rabies" then a demand will be made for all dogs to be muzzled or tied, or shot by the City Marshal.
F. H. RILEY, Mayor.

A Mad Dog Scare

A dog supposed to be suffering from rabies created considerable excitement here yesterday, biting at several people and also biting several dogs. The dog was shot by the marshal but made its escape, going toward the Prairie Hollow vicinity, where he is also reported to have bitten several dogs. We understand that several dogs bitten by him have been killed by their owners as a precautionary measure. The mayor has ordered dogs to be tied or muzzled for 20 days, as the dogs will, we are told, develop rabies within that time if they are infected. It's best to be mighty careful, nowadays, until it is seen what develops.

A Narrow Escape

What might have been a disastrous fire was discovered Friday night at the Garner livery barn by Leslie Strong, who had come there from the Garner garage, having been out with an auto party. He smelt smoke in the barn and called his father, Night-watchman Roe Strong, and they entered the barn, to which Leslie had a key. The office was full of smoke, and they found a box of papers on fire, probably originating from the fact that some one had thrown a cigar or cigarette stub or a match into the papers. The fire was extinguished before it had gained sufficient headway to prove damaging, but if it had not been discovered when it was the story would most likely have been quite different.

Republican Speaking.

On account of the fact that Hon. W. C. Hawkins, who was announced to speak here at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, has been called home, Hon. A. M. Haswell of Springfield will fill the remainder of his dates in Wright county. A change has also been made in the times of the hours of this and the Cedar Gap meeting, and Mr. Haswell will speak here at 1:30 and at Cedar Gap at 7:30. A number from here are planning to attend the Cedar Gap meeting.

C. H. Nevels of near Macomb was here today. He had the misfortune to lose his residence and all the contents by fire yesterday. The house was a new one, erected at a cost of $1,000, to replace his other house, also destroyed by fire.

To Receive Election Returns

Arrangements have been made for an all-night election return service here election night. The Western Union Telegraph Co. will have an operator on duty here that night, and the returns will be read at the opera house. Come and hear the news. Ladies are especially invited. We understand that Hartsville and Ava have also made arrangements to get the return.

MOHEA

The ministers of Missouri are earnestly requested to preach a temperance sermon next Sunday on account of the fact that the prohibition amendment is to be voted upon next Tuesday. Sunday school superintendents are also asked to observe next Sunday as temperance Sunday. The Wright County W. C. T. U. is working hard for the amendment and we hope this county will up a big majority against booze. Let's vote 'ar dry in the state.

School Notes

By B. E. Coats, Superintendent
Two months of school have gone and the attendance is good.
The first quarterly examination will be given this week.
All the teachers went to Springfield to attend the meeting of the Teachers' Association, and all report a pleasant time. About fifteen hundred teachers were present.
One new student in the first intermediate department this week.
One case of corporal punishment in the grammar department this week.
The tenth grade is now studying Gareth and Lynette in Tenyson's "Idylls of the King."
The early Spartan and Athenian cities are now being studied by the sophomores in Ancient History.
The class in Pedagogy is giving a good deal of attention to inductive and deductive reasoning.
The grammar department entertained the school Monday morning in chapel exercises. The second intermediate will entertain next Monday morning.

The Parent Teacher Association met last Wednesday evening and had quite an interesting meeting. Don't miss them; they concern us all.
Are you coming to the pie supper Friday night? If you want to have a real good time, come. There will be an old fashioned spelling match out of the old blue-back speller. If you think you can "spell" here is your chance to distinguish yourself forever. Don't forget, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

At last we are assured of an indoor basketball court. Those of you who enjoy good basketball games will have many opportunities this winter of attending them. Our boys are working hard and some good games are in view. Watch the school notice.
Tuesday evening Mrs. Newton entertained the high school students at her home with a Hallowe'en party. Ghosts could be seen without going to a cemetery.

Pie Supper at Flat Rock.
There will be a pie supper at Flat Rock school house Friday night, Nov. 3, the proceeds to be used for an outdoor gymnasium at the school. A program will be given before the pies are sold. A cake will be awarded to the handsomest girl, and soap and a towel to the ugliest man. Every body cordially invited.—Adv.

This back to land talk will continue to be mostly talk until it's possible to go back to it over a good road and find a good school at the end of it. The big Ozark Trails convention at Oklahoma City Nov. 21-22 is the sort of influence that helps get both.

Hallowe'en Socials

A number of socials marked Hallowe'en night, and all attending report an enjoyable time.
The Christian Sunday school entertained their members and friends at the church; games were played, and punch and cake were served.
The Mansfield high school pupils enjoyed the evening at the home of the principal, Mrs. H. E. Newton, where appropriate decorations and costumes, together with pleasing games and refreshments of gingerbread and grape juice, combined to make the occasion a highly enjoyable one.
The pupils of the seventh and eighth grades of the public school spent the evening at the C. L. Beach home, where the time was passed in enjoyment of games and refreshments. The decorations were right "up to the minute" and ghostly costumes were seen.
The O. F. F. Club girls were hostesses at a progressive Hallowe'en party. The club girls and their invited guests met at the home of Miss Jewel Hoover, where pumpkin pie was served. The next place visited was the home of Miss Ruth Haverly, where popcorn and candy constituted the bill of fare. Misses Isabelle Wallace and Roxie Bratcher served sandwiches and cocoa at the home of the former, the next place visited. At the Newton home, Misses Eula and Pearl and Jessie Brasher served ice cream and cake. Miss Mabel Hoover served coffee and doughnuts when the party reached her home. The last place visited was the Miller home, where Miss Bertha Miller served lemonade, dispensed by Gorman Freeman from a "blind tiger" erected for the purpose. At each place games were played and Hallowe'en decorations were very much in evidence. Those enjoying the party were: E. E. Coats, J. C. Carter, G. W. Freeman, Frank Hoover, Charles Newton, Verber Rippee, Elmer Strong, Alva Turner, Clyde Turner, Carl Tripp, Misses Jessie Brasher, Roxie Bratcher, Mabel Coday, Ruth Haverly, Jewell Hoover, Mabel Hoover, Bertha Miller, Eula Newton, Pearl Newton, Jessie Strong, Isabelle Wallace.
